CTM welcomes Travel Support in Sweden to the global agency network

Corporate Travel Management's (CTM) global agency network announces Travel Support has joined the global agency network to provide corporate travel servicing in Sweden.

"We're excited to welcome Travel Support in Sweden to our growing network," said Rafael Gonzalez, Vice President of Agency Partnerships Program at CTM. "Sweden is a strategic market for CTM as more clients wish to consolidate their travel programs in this important region. Travel Support's professionalism, capabilities and technology-driven offering will be an excellent fit for our current and future clients, and we are delighted to have them join."

Travel Support will provide industry-leading expertise and innovative solutions tailored to the unique needs of CTM customers managing multi-regional travel programs across Sweden. By combining local market knowledge with a global perspective, Travel Support will deliver measurable results that drive efficiency, cost savings, and enhanced traveler experiences for businesses operating in this dynamic region.

Commenting on the new Partnership, Philip Locklund, CEO Travel Support, said, "Partnering with CTM marks an exciting milestone for Travel Support as we continue to strengthen our offerings in Scandinavia. This collaboration not only enhances our global reach but also elevates our technology and supplier offering, creating significant value and an enriched travel experience to our mutual clients and Partners."
